HSC-66

MISSION SAN JUAN BAUTISTA

Largest and most impressive of all the California missions. Built like European cathedrals with three aisles. The mission Indians laid the wooden floors still in use today. Founded June 24, 1797. Located south of Gilroy on connecting link from U. S. Highway No. 101.

Color by Josef Muench

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

MIRRO-KROME CARD BY H. S. CROCKER CO., INC., SAN FRANCISCO 1, CALIF.

address

place stamp here